

Rehab

Electric Callboy

Baby, take me to rehab
It's going down
Baby, take me to rehab
It's going down
Baby, take me to rehab
It's going down
Baby, take me to rehab
It's going down

Always stayin' hard on the track
On my way to hell and back
Always high and never rest
This life gives me a heart attack
People are calling me overdone
But ain't nothin' hurtin' the hardest one
Fuck all the bastards, I'm ready to fall
My concerns are up when I'm paying the toll

Feeling like I'm static
Cause the noise just silent
I don't wanna hear ya
Cause I'm devine in my failure
I can't hear your voice
But I keep on trying
Prayers going unheard in a void

You will never know
What is hiding
What is hiding inside
You will never know
What is breaking
What is breaking my mind
And I'll crash down all the dourts along the way
You will never get hold of me
Baby, take me to rehab

These goddamn voices in my head
It's causting it to almost crack
Don't you tell me how to act
Don't need you breakin' my neck
Don't need to be put up against the wall
I don't give a fuck and move on, that is all
I know it is time, I can finally confess
That I wanna live in this beautiful mess

Feeling like I'm static
Cause I'm devine in my failure
I can't hear your voice

You will never know
What is hiding
You will never know

What is breaking
What is breaking my mind
You will never get hold of me
Baby, take me to rehab

Baby, take me to rehab
Somebody else (Somebody else)
Is hiding deep under my skin
Nobody else (Nobody else)
Is paying for all of my sins

You will never know
What is hiding
You will never know
What is breaking
What is breaking my mind
And I'll crash down all the dourts along the way
You will never get hold of me
