

Older Than You

Eskimo Joe

Oh inner city streets
Where I sleep
I watched her take this romance
Home to me
Oh

I believe in something more
I watched her heart
Through bedroom doors
It's true
Eyes that are older than you

Oh echoes in the heart
When we meet
I chose to take this moment
To tell you I'm leaving
Oh

I believe in something more
I watched her heart
Through bedroom doors
It's true
Eyes that are older than you

Oh-oh-oh
Older than you
Oh-oh-oh
Older than you

And watch her count it up on one hand
Like lovers and ocean and land
And it keeps on going
Over and over and over again

I believe in something more
I watched her heart
Through bedroom doors
I believe in something more
I watched her heart
Through bedroom doors
It's true
Eyes that are older than you
