

Say Something

Eskimo Joe

(Say something, say something, say something)

All alone
I'm lit up by a telephone
The world is just a broken home
Are you listening, hello?
Warning signs
Written on a stolen sky
Calling from a broken line
Are you listening, hello?
Hello?

Ooh oh
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence
Ooh oh
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

Talking tough
Taking til there's not enough
What about the rest of us
Are you listening, hello?
Warning signs
Written on a stolen sky
Calling from a broken line
Are you listening, hello?
Hello?

Ooh oh
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence
Ooh oh
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

You know I used to think that silence was golden

Ooh oh

Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence
Ooh oh
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence, silence

Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
Say something
The only thing to fear is silence, silence
