

Don't Rely On Anyone

Esoterica

Got to believe in myself, though they said there's nothing here
that is worth the while, maybe I'm mad but,

I think there's something coming, I can feel the anger running,
I feel that things are changing, maybe too swiftly.

As things are getting harder,
we're on a mission.
As things are getting tougher,
there's no submission.

We wont be stopped now,
we're fighting the machine that we needed.

Don't Rely On Anyone.

Stand at the edge of the abyss, of the things they missed and I think there's things are here, that may not be quite what

They said they wanted to hear, but then tell me why should I ca re?
They haven't done a damn thing for me lately.

As things are getting harder,
we're on a mission.
As things are getting tougher,
there's no submission.

We wont be stopped now,
we're fighting the machine that we needed.

Don't Rely On Anyone.

As things are getting harder,
we're on a mission.
As things are getting tougher,
there's no submission.

Don't Rely On Anyone.
