

The Still

Esoterica

Darling the crossing is real
Soul and the body just separated
Feelings been displaced what's real

There's no sound left in me
There's no fear breaking free

Darlin' in your life, where you go I'll be
And there's no damn place I'd rather be than in your life
Darlin' in your life, where you go

I am the still and still is in me
No one can see, but I wish you could see
Silently moving and drifting in between spaces

There's no breath left in me
There's no fear I'm free

Darlin' in your life, where you go I'll be
And there's no damn place I'd rather be than in your life
Darlin' in your life, where you go

There's no fear I'm free

Darlin' in your life, where you go I'll be
And there's no damn place I'd rather be than in your life
Darlin' in your life, where you go
