

You Have to Dance

Esperanza Spalding

You can never be too magical
You can never be too magical
You can never be too magical

And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
You can never be too magical

And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
You can never be too magical

(Dancing tongue tips of Shiva's snake)
And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
(May your feet be)
You can never be too magical

(Dancing tongue tips of Shiva's snake)
And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
(May your feet be)
You can never be too magical

(Dancing tongue tips of Shiva's snake)
And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
(May your feet be)
You can never be too magical (Magical)

Dancing tongue tips of Shiva's snake
May your feet be
Dancing tongue tips of Shiva's snake
May your feet be

And they say that there's no magic though
They complained that we're too magical
And I claim it, yes, I'm magical
You can never be too magical
