Essosa

There's something in your eyes
That has me mesmerized
We fuss like kids and fight
That's why it feels so nice

I wouldn't call it love
But your touch is enough
To make me comfortable
I've said it all

But I cannot get too far ahead
Need to double back
Wouldn't want to ruin our bond
I can't deal with that
Everytime it comes to mind
I just push it back

Um, I was just wondering...

Is this real?
Tell me is this real
Is it just the way I feel
Tell me is this real
(Just for real)

I don't know where your heads at
No I don't know where I stand but don't have to tell me twice
Labels are so simplifying
But I

No I cannot get to far ahead
Need to double back
Wouldn't want to ruin our bond
I can't deal with that
Everytime it comes to mind
I just push it back

But I just want to know

Is this real?
Tell me is this real
Is it just the way I feel
Tell me is this real
(Just for real)

Is this real?
Tell me is this real
Is it just the way I feel
Tell me is this real
(Just for real)
