

Guilty

Essosa

I met this guy
On the poolside
Bright like a summer sun
I looked him in his eye
That's how I felt, uh
Folded like hell
But did I know
This wasn't gonna end well?

I once had passion
But it's over
And I did what I could
To bring me closure
'Cause I've forgiven you
For what you put me through
And after all this time
You tempted me to a bed of lies

What could I say?
What could I do?
She was all up in the club
Accusing me of loving you, and
She said she's been
With you all of this time
Shoulda known right from the jump
That you was never only mine

You think that you were little
Sneaking round in broad daylight
Thank God that no one caught you
Now was you playing with my life? I swear
I knew that something wasn't right
She came and called me out, my name, oh
But she can't make me feel guilty, no

'Cause there's attraction
Now it's over
And I did what I could
To get me sober
Have not forgotten you
Through all you put me through
'Cause after all this time
You tempted me to a bed of lies

What could I say?
What could I do?
She was all up in the club
Accusing me of loving you, and
She said she's been
With you all of this time
That you was never only mine

All up in the club
Accusing me of loving you
Known right from the jump
That you was never only mine
