

Only One

Essosa

All this loving
I don't get it
Why'd you wanna, love me in the dark?
Still keeping, me a secret
It's not giving
Don't take this too hard

You're telling me everything's ok
But I need you to reciprocate
It's so much more than what you say

Need you to show me
How bad you want it?
Cause it ain't nothing
If it ain't public
I can hold you down
I need some substance
A little something
Cause it ain't nothing
Right now I just
Want to, be your, only one
Right now I just
Want to, be your, only one

Take it from me
You got lucky
I don't ever, give out chances
But you, you make me do
Things I'd never
I feel some type of way

You're telling me everything's ok
But I need you to reciprocate
It's so much more than what you say

Need you to show me
How bad you want it?
Cause it ain't nothing
If it ain't public
I can hold you down
I need some substance
A little something
Cause it ain't nothing
Right now I just
Want to, be your, only one
Right now I just
Want to, be your, only one
