

It's hard to look straight into your eyes
I wanna touch but I'm terrified
I got suspense, it's killing me
The air's too tight for me to breathe
I know you been through all this before
But it's my first and you matter most I'm tryna keep my [?]
Anxiety pull me into your realm

Ooh, and my soul's infatuated with you
True, but I sure don't want my heart broke in two
'Cause then I'll be bruised forever more
Just tell me, just tell me, just tell me, just tell me that you want it
[?] every day I pray for you to come out
Through, now I'm scared of going in every night
[?] brothers I been let down before
Just tell me, just tell me, just tell me, just tell me that you want it

Feeling like yesterday
I was crying in a backseat over a player
Nobody ever stays
Oh but talk is cheap with [?]
Give him my everything
[?] ate the fruits of my free labor
My love [?] the thing
If you wanna come up to my place just to lay up

I, I don't wanna get hurt
I don't wanna get burned baby
Ah, now I'm gonna return
Can you come and be my savior
Oh, I been here night and day
Hoping that they'll say you'll be my one day
The only heart I crave
I just need you to say you feel the same

Ooh, and my soul's infatuated with you
True, but I sure don't want my heart broke in two
'Cause then I'll be bruised forever more
Just tell me, just tell me, just tell me, just tell me that you want it
[?] every day I pray for you to come out
Through, now I'm scared of going in every night
[?] brothers I been let down before
Just tell me, just tell me, just tell me, just tell me that you

Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
Just tell me, tell me, tell me, tell
