Balloons

EST Gee

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah-yeah, yeah

Tell 'em I'm on whatever, with whoever who won't take it there
I rolled by the scene, ain't see no body, but the face was there
Where I'm from, if you ain't got no bodies, then you can't compare
Quiet when you creep, blow with that chopper like you chasin' deer
Headshot him, doctors couldn't revive him, why y'all take him there?
We the reason for balloon releases and them teddy bears (Yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)

I remember, I spunt with a duce-duce, and it ain't make a difference
Long as you get close enough to smell him when you try and hit him
I put syrup on my filters, masked up with some killers
We can shoot out two-three minutes, 'cause it's fifties on our pistols (Brr, brr, brr-brr, brr-brr)
They ain't wanna see me rich (They ain't wanna), knew the outcome be horrific (Horrific)
In the streets, you only win if you got medals, this Olympics (Got medals, this Olympics)
I was ridin' fishbowl, passin' out them Teslas with my niggas
Burn the whip, I switch the clothes, lil' bro got daily on his mission (He got daily on his mission)
I got semis with the switches, this bitch jam, he put it on wrong (He put it on wrong)
But it just took one to send your dawg home, he long gone (He long gone)
Last night, I dreamt they dropped his charges and brought Zone home
We went on a spree for like a week, ain't turn my phone on

Tell 'em I'm on whatever, with whoever who won't take it there
I rolled by the scene, ain't see no body, but the face was there

Where I'm from, if you ain't got no bodies, then you can't compare
Quiet when you creep, blow with that chopper like you chasin' deer
Headshot him, doctors couldn't revive him, why y'all take him there?
We the reason for balloon releases and them teddy bears (Yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)

We the reason for the ceremony and the candle light (Gang)
Gee get busy with the pipe, he tryna send one up tonight (Gone)
Gunners on frontline, just had to send a blitz, then catch a flight
Made him see the light, his momma always said his future bright
Out of sight, out of mind (Gone)
Carbine, Dracos, and nines (Sticks)
You the reason he dead, why you leave your man in the blind?
'Posed to told him, we go for real, put this rappin' shit to the side
When it comes to this, I don't miss, know we score every time we slide (Skrr)
Glock on me go, "Brr," I got switches on my glee (Yeah)
Switchin' up my flow, these lil' niggas A-B-C (Yeah)
Blamin' us talkin' 'bout how we f*cked up their family tree (Yeah)
Rest in peace what's-his-name, left his family in disbelief (Woah)

Tell 'em I'm on whatever, with whoever who won't take it there
I rolled by the scene, ain't see no body, but the face was there
Where I'm from, if you ain't got no bodies, then you can't compare
Quiet when you creep, blow with that chopper like you chasin' deer

Headshot him, doctors couldn't revive him, why y'all take him there?
We the reason for balloon releases and them teddy bears (Yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah)
