Nathaniel Forest

EST Gee

Play in my mirrors, PTSD get the best of me
Gang put niggas in the hospital for disrespectin' me
(FOREVEROLLING)

Never been stingy, built my legacy lettin' my section eat
You want attention, mention Gee
Make sure that he see us before we yeek so he can rest in peace Can't believe who God let me turn out to be Sufferin' deep from tryna find some love inside these streets Look in my face, I know it hurt I'm where you want to be Don't make no tweet or post IG when I'm confirming beef
Last they told me, that nigga's chest was somewhere out his tee
I get to cursin' niggas with cancer, who want smoke with me?

Quannie came home to a warzone, and I told him "Sorry"
I told him green light everybody so he don't gotta call me
I scared these label reps to death because these deaths involve me
I lost some love but not respect, I see myself evolving
Been through the fire by myself, somehow I came out flawless
Should've been a bitch the way you dick ride, you missed yo' ca lling
Sometimes I ain't have time to let it dry, I sold it soft
Sometimes I pray that niggas die like I'm Nathaniel Forrest

Blood in my eyes, feel it's my time, Rico speedin' tryna drive Talkin' loud, looked in my eyes and told me, "Bitch, you bet' n ot die"
Four in my side, one in my eye, karma gon' come back around
Out the car rear walk 'em down, Feds investigatin' us now Look what we did for the city, this how they repay us Niggas is faithful to sucker shit like they get checks for hati n'
I was the one they ain't expect, I feel like Calvin Cambridge (
I feel Like Mike)
I started dead situations back up like I'm jumper cables

Quannie came home to a warzone, and I told him "Sorry"
I told him green light everybody so he don't gotta call me
I scared them label reps to death because these deaths involve
me
I lost some love but not respect, I see myself evolving
Been through the fire by myself, somehow I came out flawless
Should've been a bitch the way you dick ride, you missed yo' ca lling
Sometimes I ain't have time to let it dry, I sold it soft
Sometimes I pray that niggas die like I'm Nathaniel Forrest
