Disappear

E^ST

I'll love you forever
We'll grow up together
For worse and for better
Until we change our minds
You promised to be true
I promise to trust you
Our love we'll hold on to
Until we change our minds

The fairytales they set for dinner will get choked up tonight
I won't pretend to know the answers
But you know that I'm right

This is the love song no one wants to hear
The happy ending we all hate to fear
The destination we can't bear to mere
Can true love truely disappear?

So death has to say so
I'll go where you go (I'll go where you go)
My eyes will be your home
Until we change our minds

The fairytales they set for dinner will get choked up tonight
I won't pretend to know the answers
But you know that I'm right

This is the love song no one wants to hear
The happy ending we all hate to hear
The destination we can't bear to mere
Can true love truely disappear?
This is the love song no one wants to hear
The happy ending we all hate to hear
The destination we can't bear to mere
Can true love truely disappear?
Disappear
