

FUNERAL

E^ST

Sometimes I wish I believed in God
I wish that I believed in ghosts
Cos maybe we could talk again
That's what I'd like the most

I wish I cried at your funeral
I wish I could've said goodbye
But right now I can't feel anything
Even if I tried

Every day I wake up, just another day down
Everytime I get up, I don't really know how
I just gotta face some things are different now
Different now
Different now

I wish I believed in something that was bigger than myself
Cos death is all around me, and I'd like to blame someone else
I wish I cried at your funeral
It doesn't mean I didn't try
I know you're somewhere far away from here
It's like we got left behind

Could you show me what it's like on the other side?
In time like this, I feel like a little child
Sometimes I have dreams where you're still alive
I hope you're haunting me tonight

Every day I wake up, just another day down
(I hope you're haunting me tonight)
Everytime I get up, I don't really know how
(I hope you're haunting me tonight)
I just gotta face some things are different now
Different now
Different now
I hope you're haunting me tonight

Every day I wake up, just another day down
Everytime I get up, I don't really know how
I just gotta face some things are different now
Different now
Different now

Looks can be deceiving
Why'd you have to leave me?
Cos now I can't go home no more
Empty chest and empty drawers
Miss your footsteps on the floor
I've never needed you more

All that's left is a family
The ones that wished you well
All that's left of your legacy
Is the story that they'll tell
