

I Don't Lack Imagination

E^ST

You were greater than magic
From far, far away
Guess I was being dramatic You're not really that great
No, I don't think you're that cool
But, yeah you had me fooled
Guess I'm being dramatic
But I'm not that into you

I'd rather dream 'bout all the things we'd see
Than have you see me
Yeah, I'd rather dream 'bout all the things we'd do
Than have you do me

I'm better, better, better at wanting you than having you
You should've, should've, should've stayed a fantasy
I'm better, better, better at wanting you than knowing you
You should've, should've, should've stayed a fantasy

Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh
I don't lack imagination
To my own goddamn frustration

I'm better, better, better at wanting you than having you
You should've, should've, should've stayed a fantasy
I'm better, better, better at wanting you than knowing you
You should've, should've, should've stayed a fantasy

I said I'd be down to fuck with you
And you said you'd be down for fucking too
But my bad, I wish that I only knew
And I said I'd be down to fuck with you but

I'd rather dream 'bout all the things we'd see
Then have you see me
Yeah, I'd rather dream 'bout all the things we'd do
Then have you do me

Ooh ooh ooh ooh
I don't lack imagination
To my own goddamn frustration

Better, better... better (better)
Should've, should've, should've stayed a... (stayed a) stayed a Better, better, better at wanting you than having you
You should've, should've, should've, should've, should've, should've, should've, should've, should've, should've...
