

Pure

EAST

All of my friends (My friends)
Like me for a reason
But all of their reasons
Are never pure enough
All of my friends (My friends)
Like me for a season
But all of the seasons
Change around too much
I give and give and give and give
And shit comes back polluted
I live and live and live and live
And watch shit get perverted

All of my friends (My friends)
All of my friends (My friends)

I can't find it
I can't find the core
It's hiding
Why can't it ever be pure?
They don't love me
They don't care no more
They're lying
Why can't it ever be pure?

All of my friends (My friends)
Think that they all know me
They don't know I'm lonely
And wonderin' where they are
All of my friends (My friends)
Think that they all own me
But they don't know I'm only
Makin' it this far
I love and love and love and love
And get it back in pieces
I love and love and love and love
And emptiness increases

All of my friends (My friends)
All of my friends (My friends)

I can't find it
I can't find the core
It's hiding
Why can't it ever be pure?
They don't love me
They don't care no more
They're lying
Why can't it ever be pure?

Why can't it be
Nobody's lovin' me
Why can't it be
Why can't it ever be pure?
Why can't it be
Nobody's lovin' me
Why can't it be

Nobody's lovin' me

All of my friends (My friends)

All of my friends (My friends)

All of my friends (My friends)

All of my friends (My friends)
