You sure do got a pretty mouth Why don't you drop my pants, I'll make you squeal like a pig Feet in the water is not cold enough, you're not woman enough Inside your daughter is not warm enough, and you're not woman enough, no Don't compromise what's gold For the soul you never sold For the soul you never sold, no So I follow you down this road Well you try but you can't let go So hold on to years ago Cold as a lover, don't you want to stay? Breath from another, and I'll have my way Inside your daughter You can never hold what you can't let go 'Cause he wants it so She'd sell her own mother Just to make a dime before closing time When he tells her so Don't compromise what's gold For the soul you never sold For the soul you never sold, no So I follow you down this road Will you drive? well you can't let go So long, two years ago She said she wanted me to hit it But I said I wasn't with it Eyes red thighs spread better come get it While it's hot the goods I got nevermind my bad credit Told me how she was soaking wet and I'm the one who wet it Can't lie I sweat it, but I knew that if I ran through that It's up the creek I'm headed Body was there without nor sight nor vision still embedded But I knew for fucking sure that in the morning I'd regret it Had to debt it I jetted He got me hooked 'til I was shooking in the middle of the game Teary eyes, touch my thighs, future high you'll be my game Could have kept it but I left it embedded instead of it dissecting me Free spirit I feared it but steer it to clear it the stress in me Possessing me the chemistry mother want me in the ministry Where misery influenced me corruption claiming custody And I knew this time that I had to feel the pain

It was needed so I'll see what cause deception in this game

Don't compromise what's gold For the soul you never sold For the soul you never sold, no So I follow you down this road Will you drive? well you can't let go So hold on to years ago

I'll try to understand
When you're down on your knees in front of a man
I'll try to understand
