

Grateful

Etana

I am grateful for the sun that shines
And I'm grateful for the good that gives me light
And I'm grateful for the good ones around me
And the lessons from those who betrayed me
And I am grateful for the strength that I'm given
And for all of my daily blessings
So grateful for the love that surrounds me
And I'm so thankful for life

Yes I'm grateful, grateful
And everything I've been through
Has made me who I am today
So, I'm grateful, grateful
Oh oh and there's no battle that I didn't win
And every living day I remain so grateful

Things get hard
Things get rough
We face struggles every day I know
At times you may feel weak but just don't give up
You'll get through it one day I know

Hey I, I'm grateful, grateful
And everything I've been through
Has made me who I am today
So, I'm grateful, grateful
Oh, oh, and there's no battle that I didn't win
And every living day I remain so grateful

I'm so loved
I'm so blessed
Everyday I find strength so deep within
I'm so loved
I'm so blessed
I give thanks for everything
I'm, so grateful

Grateful, grateful
And everything I've been through
Has made me who I am today
So, I'm grateful, grateful
Oh, oh, and there's no battle that I didn't win
And every living day I remain so grateful

I'm so loved
I'm so blessed
Everyday I find strength so deep within
I'm so loved
I'm so blessed
I give thanks for everything
I'm, so grateful

So grateful everyday
I'm grateful
