

High Grade

Etana

High
So high, yeah
Ooh
Hey
Yeah

Higher than the tallest mountaintop
Higher than the tallest tree
High up in the sky on a real smooth flight
High grade elevating me

Grind it up, steam it up, watch it bubble up
Inna the chalice, ice-cold and green
Love from the heart so hard, your kisses are mean
High grade love haunting me
You make my toes curl, love me so deep
Straight through my spine, tingles in my feet
Oh my God, I tell you, no lie
I hold my breath till my eye dem fry

Higher than the tallest mountaintop
Higher than the tallest tree
High up in the sky on a real smooth flight
High grade elevating me
Higher than the tallest mountaintop
Higher than the tallest tree
High up in the sky on a real smooth flight
High grade elevating me

Chop it up, heat it up, blaze the fire up, Lord
The high grade is all I need
Not a day goes by, you're not on my mind
Your pineapple draw so sweet

Feel it [?] natty dread
Till the [?] spread
Feel it [?] natty dread
Water to the root, strong like bamboo, ooh

Higher higher grade [?] yeah
Blaze the fire red
Redder than red, ooh
Higher higher grade [?] yeah
Blaze the fire red
Redder than red

Higher than the tallest mountaintop
Higher than the tallest tree
High up in the sky on a real smooth flight
High grade elevating me
Higher than the tallest mountaintop
Higher than the tallest tree
High up in the sky on a real smooth flight
High grade elevating me
