

Know Who I Am

Etana

I've learned sometimes ago
What we are and what time has erased
Throughout our generation
With misdirection we've forgotten our place
Our kingdom isn't worthless
It's all in our mind
And it would make us speechless
If you could see us back in time

And if you see me walking much lighter
Ohhh that' because I know who I am
And if you see my smile getting brighter
It simply means I do understand

Behold the hidden treasure
That's about to unfold
We will be much better
And our true self we'll know
Kings and Queen all over
We just forgot our names
The silence getting louder
That we are royal just the same

And if you see me walking much lighter
Ohhh that' because I know who I am
And if you see my smile getting brighter
It simply means I do understand

And one day we'll be walking alone hand in hand in the sun
Yes we will be walking along
Hand in hand and be as one
Kings and Queen all over
We just forgot our names
The silence getting louder
That we are royal just the same

And if you see me walking much lighter
Ohhh that' because I know who I am
And every step is taking me higher
My feet's been lifted over the sand

And if you see me walking much lighter
Ohhh that' because I know who I am
And every step is taking me higher
My feet's been lifted over the sand
