

Love

Etana

Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you
Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you

My heart's been broken many times
I've been told so many lies
Till I try, and I try, and I try
To keep it going
Make it alright
But sometimes I feel so cold
On the inside
On the inside

Oh love, oh love, oh love
What it feels like to feel you
Oh, love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you

See, I've been broken
Still, I'm healing
And love replaces
What was stolen
And I try, and I try, and I try
To keep it going
Make it alright
Oh please, oh please don't leave me
So cold
On the inside

Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you
Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you

Even even when I'm low down
You pick me up
When I can't go on
You carry me, yeah
If I should turn away, yeah
Bring me back to love

Oh, love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you
Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you
Love, don't make me forget
What it feels like to feel you
Love, don't make me forget
Don't make me forget
