

Trigger

Etana

Sitting in the darkness knowing she was praying Waiting for her to fall asleep only her tears can melt his poor heart

Knowing she was suffering still she begs him keep the piece

He said how can I stand aside watching my hopes and dreams die what can I give you for all you gave to me

Mama mi affi pull di trigger again he cryed I'm so sorry I lied A know a said I wouldn't do it again and i tried but the world is not on our side

Radiation chemo therapy pan phone cyaad and bag juice money
Try all he can two can't meet Nine subject nuff school fee all because she toiled di streets she understands how he feels But he said how high is the price to pay for her to live anothe r day
No key to all these closed doors I see

Mama if not me who will save you Where is your sunshine after all that you've been through Are we just a chapter in the history of tragedy when your praye rs got for me
