

I have been waiting for the day
By day and nights.
I have been looking to the wall.
I remember your face, oh Dear!

Go before my life;
My only need.
Please change my mind.
Set me free!

Revival now prepare my soul,
To holy wedding.
I need to search to much for love,
The truly love.

Go before my life;
My only need.
Please change my mind.
Set me free!

We don't need this fake wings to be alive,
He just want to carry you on!
Like a bird flying on to the sea,
He just want to you carry on!

The Jesus Church will now raise,
Will ascend with Him and I'll be there...
And Eternity I have to praise him,
And I'll stay there!!!

Go before my life;
My only need.
Please change my mind.
Set me free!

We don't need this fake wings to be alive,
He just want to carry you on!
Like a bird flying on to the sea,
He just want to you carry on!
