

Visionary Sin

Eternal Legacy

Out from the dark
Awakened for one single reason
Now my turn for pain
One last chance to save my name

Resting in peace
With one intention walking alone now
Twisting in rage
This the toll for all my sin

Now make it right
This is your chance to repent
See through your soul
Die in their glory with shame
One final chance
To save yourself from your
Visionary sin

Now make it cold
You will now vanish for life
Be killed or behold
An endless life of despair
Hate grief and blood
Flow through your veins
Visionary sin

Into this grief
The first joy I had becomes my own death
Feeling all pain
I gasp for air I depart away

The fury renews
For the second time I meant the torment
I can't take this curse
Now I see the game's on me

Now make it right
This is your chance to repent
See through your soul
Die in their glory with shame
One final chance
To save yourself from your
Visionary sin

What have I done
I thought that was cursing my evil
I see no end
Criminal punishment and I'm the slave

Torment and lies
I've been betrayed just a poor man
Never ever going to end
Suffering and endless fate

Now make it right

Die in their glory with shame
One final chance
Visionary sin

Now make it right
See through your soul
