

Broken Lullaby

ETERNITY ∞

I've been looking for the chords
Grasping for the words
To define where I am now
But my life feels so off key
I'm feeling flat and living sharp
My love
My hate

Anytime I'm near you
I don't have the strength to
Find somebody better
Broken lullaby

Melodies remember
Every word of anger
No one does it better
Broken lullaby
Broken lullaby

I'm a broken lullaby
Broken lullaby
I am I am

Well I keep on counting the ways
To find a new name for this pain
You used to be my safest place
Well I still can trace your face
Predict the words you'll say
My love
My hate

Anytime I'm near you
I don't have the strength to
Find somebody better
Broken lullaby

Melodies remember
Every word of anger
No one does it better
Broken lullaby
Broken lullaby

I know you know we weren't meant to be
I know you know what you meant to me
I know you know we weren't meant to be
We take it back, we remember things so differently
We know we lived in that solitude
We know we lived on those afternoons
I know I hope that I will see you soon
Till then every song is a song for you

Anytime I'm near you
I don't have the strength to
Find somebody better
Broken lullaby

Melodies remember

Every word of anger
No one does it better
Broken lullaby
Broken lullaby
