Damn

ETERNITY ∞

The clock is ticking like time needs to have a shout
And Mr.Daniels till dawn doesn't drown it out
All I concentrate on is not to think about you
I've got
Too many thoughts in my head I never spoke aloud
Too many thoughts in my head but they are worthless now
All I concentrate on is not to think about you
And my feelings are so numb
All I keep thinking is

Damn
Warnings all around me
Damn
I can't get you behind me
How am I still holding on
To what is already gone
Damn
Never brave never strong
Ooh Oh oh

Does the guilt wake you up like amphetamines?
And do you punish yourself to try to feel redeemed?
You know the truth always hurts,just like the sky's always blue
Tell me
Are their moments you think that you'll never heal
Do the memories sting?
Do they taste like steel?
You know the truth's gotta hurt tno matter what you do
Are you feelings going numb?
Do you keep thinking that?

Damn
Warnings all around me
Damn
I can't get you behind me
How am I still holding on
To what is already gone
Damn
Never brave never strong
Ooh oh oh

I try to let go
I try to move on
But you won't let go
No matter what I do
Your face invades my view

Damn

Won't you tell me
How am I still holding on
To what is already gone
Damn
Never brave never strong
Ooh oh oh
