Just tell me what I did, what I did wrong
I know we always said relationships are stupid
Never felt desperate for anything or anyone
But two years away has never felt so long

Never thought I ever had to ask
A friend, mmm-mmm
Hurts so bad, just let me take it back
What I said
Forget the letter I wrote

I'm begging for closure
Can't stand the silence from you
I thought this was our moment
I waited four years to tell you

How
How
How
How do I let you know the right way?
Now
Now
Now
Now that you've come back to shun me?

I'd rather carry the weight another year
If it meant that I could keep you near
Me and you didn't change
But two years away has never felt so long

Never thought I ever had to ask
A friend, mmm-mmm
Hurts so bad, just let me take it back
What I said
Forget the letter I wrote

I'm begging for closure
Can't stand the silence from you
I thought this was our moment
I waited four years to tell you

How
How
How
How do I let you know the right way?
Now
Now
Now
Now that you've come back to shun me?
