

Final Boss

Ethan Bortnick

Ay

Go pull the plug, yeah I figured it out
They're calling me on a sliver of doubt
Force me to do, I got too much sauce
Stuck in one room, I'm the final boss
You don't really wanna know my master plan
Bowser [?] lava doesn't make me sweat
Agitated, aggravated in my eyes
Compass faded, devil baby, colourblind

So go ahead, gimme something to live for Life with this lens got me dreaming like Eeyore
Force me to do, I got too much sauce
Stuck in my room, I'm the final boss
Climbing to the top of Everest, loneliness
Flick it, bullet, shot by all my closest friends
Building gadgets so I could go back in time
Kill all of my dreams before my wasted prime

(3, 2, 1, GO!)

(Alright)

Bouncing off the walls
Kicks you in your balls
Running down the halls
'Cause I heard that princess call, yuh
Might be suicide
Hardest levels high
Running out of lives
Guess it's not my time, yuh
