

I WANT RED

Ethan Bortnick

When a wise man said
"Beware the iron hammer"
I believed him
With all my life
Then a young man said
"Bare the iron hammer"
So I ran the other way

Now what am I supposed to do?
With the deepest blue
When I want red...

Revenge is the only thing I see
Never think twice, now to tell what you stole from me
Oh, I'll let you live another week
Found the sights that they tore out your legacy

Revenge is the only thing I see
Nowhere to hide, now to tell what you stole from me
Oh, I'll let you live another week
Found the sights that they tore out your legacy!

Strolling through the gates of Dover castle
Dragging my binds behind my back
Journey across the black sea
Sacrifice the only
As the wise man said
"The past was life"

Now what am I supposed to do?
With the deepest blue
When I want red...

Revenge is the only thing I see
Never think twice, now to tell what you stole from me
Oh, I'll let you live another week
Found the sights that they tore out of your legacy

Revenge is the only thing I see
Nowhere to hide, now to tell what you stole from me
Oh, I'll let you live another week
Found the sights that they tore out your legacy!

Revenge is the only thing I see
Nowhere to hide, now to tell what you stole from me
Oh, I'll let you live another week
Found the sights that they tore out of your legacy
