

My Bleeding Tears

Eucharist

The dissolving of me
The burning fires are within Looking for no tomorrow Living only in thoughts of yesterday

Terrifying darkness will meet you if you try to intrude
The depths of my mind travel far from here

I speak only for myself and I blame nobody else For what I have done
I will always be left to carry my pain

Behold my bleeding tears that fall because you will never understand how I feel

When I am nothing but dust
Do not cry for me
I have caused all of this myself because the depths of my mind
travel far from here
