

Ghost

Eva Under Fire

It's been so long I have kept
The memory of you within my chest
I'm holding on
I'm holding on to this
The hurt that's in my heart it stays
I can't believe you're gone
When will this fade
I'm holding on
I'm holding on to this

How I need you
How I can't breathe
Where have you gone
So far from me
In this moment
I can't fight for you and me
(I can't fight it, no, I can't fight it)
Now I can't sleep, can't dream
Wake up screaming
Desperate, empty
Are you listening
Alone at night
Is when it hurts the most
Living with your ghost

It's been so long I can't believe
That you would ever dare
To leave me here alone
Empty smile and aching bones
The thought that I cannot replace
Your name on that stone
When will this fade
It never fades

How I need you
How I can't breathe
Where have you gone
So far from me
In this moment
I can't fight for you and me
(I can't fight it, no, I can't fight it)
Now I can't sleep, can't dream
Wake up screaming
Desperate, empty
Are you listening
Alone at night
Is when it hurts the most
Living with your ghost
Living with your ghost

End this pain!

With every breath
Alone in the pain
I can't help the torment
There is no escape
This hole in my heart

The ashes I own
I feel so alone

I inhale, exhale slowly
I inhale, exhale slowly
I inhale
I inhale
I'm alone

How I need you
How I can't breathe
Where have you gone
So far from me
In this moment
I can't fight for you and me
(I can't fight it, no, I can't fight it)
Now I can't sleep, can't dream
Wake up screaming
Desperate, empty
Are you listening
Alone at night
Is when it hurts the most
Living with your ghost
Living with your
Living with your ghost
Living with your ghost
