

Reckless

Eva Under Fire

Today today is longer
Than I could ever remember
I could feel it drag me up the stairs
But I couldn't feel you there

Just one move
Just one step
Just one touch
Just one breath
I just need you here
I just need you here

Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
Tell me that it's fine
I'm on your side
Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
I'll tell you that you're fine
I'm on your side

Today, today and always
I remember all the small things
It's been a while since I broke in two
And all I ever see is you

Just one move
Just one step
Just one touch
Just one breath
I just need you here
I just need you here

Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
Tell me that it's fine
I'm on your side
Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
I'll tell you that you're fine
I'm on your side

Take a walk, take a walk down memory lane
You were gone, you were gone just as soon as you came
I just need you here right now
You were gone, you were gone, ran away with the rain
It was over, it's over, you're turning the page
I could stay right here right now

But you're gone
You're gone
In time
You learn to find your own

Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
Tell me that it's fine

I'm on your side
Stay with me tonight
Tell me that it's alright
I'll tell you that you're fine
I'm on your side

I'm on your side
I'm on your side
