

The Strong

Eva Under Fire

This is all I am
And all I know
To speak in the midst of the silence
And listen to the places that I've been
And where I'll go
With your hand taking mine
And all of what you made of the memories
I'll never let you go

I am the strong
I am the brave
I am the scar
I am the pain
And I will fight
By your side
Until we're home
You're not alone

Even through the rain
And fading light
Remember every word that you told me
Sing it out loud
Whisper it slowly
Just hold on
Cause daybreaks on its way
We used to run from all of our shadows
And now we're here to stay

I am the strong
I am the brave
I am the scar
I am the pain
And I will fight
By your side
Until we're home

I am the strong
I am the brave
I am the scar
I am the pain
And I will fight
By your side
Until we're home
You're not alone
You're not alone

Heavy is the iron heart
Carries all with love

I am the strong
I am the brave
I am the scar
I am the pain
And I will fight
By your side
Until we're home

I am the strong
I am the brave
I am the scar
I am the pain
And I will fight
By your side
Until we're home
You're not alone
You're not alone
