

When does it get easier?
I'm still alone
Everything that meant something to me
I've already thrown away

When does it get easier?
I'm still a mess
I thought by 23 I'd be making less mistakes
My mind would regulate and
I'd finally leave this place

I thought by now I'd like to read
I thought by now I'd get some sleep
Enough for a night but not to keep
I'm still here
I'm still fallen apart

When does it get easier is it all a lie?
Growing ups the culprit cause the pain resides
Just pushed to the side dealt with at another time

I thought by now I'd like to read
I thought by now I'd get some sleep
Enough for a night but not to keep
I'm still here
I'm still fallen apart

I thought by now I'd like to read
I thought by now I'd get some sleep
I'm enough for a night but not to keep
I'm still here
I'm still fallen apart

I'm still here
I'm still fallen apart
