

Everything I Wanted

Evan Honer

You said you never had the real estate
To love somebody else
I was rolling on the interstate
Chasing something I thought we both felt
Leave it to you oh you'll find a way, to turn heaven to hell
Only good at pushing off the blame and making it about yourself

While I'm driving up you're shutting down
But it's too late for me to turn around

I'm out of the luck, it seems again
She's out of touch, this is the end
Of everything I wanted
I held my breathe, I bit my tongue
Stayed on the edge til she was done with
Everything I wanted

I don't remember how it started out, now we're callin it quits
I lose my mind just tryna figure out, how we ended up like this

'Cause I don't know how to hold
Onto someone who can do without
Me around, I'm done with doubts
But come on baby can we work this out

While I'm driving up but she's already gone
I'm stuck in the past but she's moved on

I'm out of the luck, it seems again
She's out of touch, this is the end
Of everything I wanted
I held my breathe, I bit my tongue
Stayed on the edge til she was done with
Everything I wanted

I'm out of the luck, it seems again
She's out of touch, this is the end
Of everything I wanted
I held my breathe, I bit my tongue
Stayed on the edge til she was done with
Everything I wanted
Everything I wanted
Everything I wanted

Everything I wanted
Everything I wanted
