

Waiting Ain't Easy

Evan Honer

32 days out on the road, that's 30 too many to handle
Darlin it kills me 'cause you'd love Montana
I'm burning both ends of the candle

Well I'm doing alright
But damn it gets lonely watching them sing back the songs that you wrote
In your bedroom alone I cried when you showed don't worry I'm w aiting home

I won't lie it gets hard
But I was all in from the start

Just know that I'll stay no matter the distance
I'll wait out the rain till the lights in the kitchen
And it's just you and me how we pictured the view
Waiting ain't easy but it's worth it for you

Well I'm running behind so I'll call you later
No problem I'll sit by the phone
I really do miss you and I'm reaching my end
I'm proud of you look how you've grown

I won't lie it gets hard
But I was all in from the start

Just know that I'll stay no matter the distance
I'll wait out the rain till the lights in the kitchen
And it's just you and me how we pictured the view
Waiting ain't easy but it's worth it for you

Just know that I'll stay no matter the distance
I'll wait out the rain till the lights in the kitchen
And it's just you and me how we pictured the view
Waiting ain't easy but it's worth it for you

Oh waiting ain't easy but it's worth it for you
