

Pressure

Evan Taubenfeld

Too much pressure
Too many lies
Too much feelings
That I can't hide
Too much hope thrown away
I had it all but it all slipped away

If I fall down
Who will be there to pick me up?
If I fall down
Who will be there for me in the end?
Who will be there for me?
Yeah

There's too many worries
And too little time
I'm such a letdown
I hate my life
There's too much to go wrong
I had it all
Now everything is gone

If I fall down
Who will be there to pick me up?
If I fall down
Who will be there for me in the end?
Who will be there for me?

Too much pressure
Too many lies
Too much feelings I can't hide
Too much hope thrown away
I had it all but it all slipped away

If I fall down
Who will be there to pick me up?
And if I fall down, down, down
Will you be there for me in the end?
If I fall down
If I fall down
If I fall down
