

Catch Me on Fire

Evans Blue

One who needs me
Are you not
One who's living on borrowed thoughts
How you see me
How you want
Force-feed the feeling that keeps you warm
Your words have paid their dues
But we'll leave the light one
We'll celebrate your feud
By feeding the lion

I hope you won't
Catch me on fire
Holy divider
I know you won't
Catch me inside the web of your liar

One who's breathing
Are you not
Consciously beating
Your ruthless heart
Furnished feelings infect us all
Thus concealing just who we are
Lose some and some may lose
But they'll leave the light on
They feed off you
As you keep feeding the lion

I hope you won't
Catch me on fire
Holy divider
I know you won't
Catch me inside the web of your liar

All he wanted was a little anonymity
Not the pedestal you needed to control me
Then place the burden on coercive ambiguity
And nominate the ghost you made
To designate an enemy
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me
All you want is to control me

I hope you won't
Catch me on fire
Holy divider
I know you won't
Catch me inside the web of your liar

I hope you won't
Catch me on fire
Holy divider

I know you won't
