

Hold On

Evans Blue

Abandon fear and flaws exposed
Equipped with indefinite highs and let goes
Unclear, still in control steady as we fall
Thoughts escape the prison skull
Freedom clears a path to follow
We wait, but will we go
And swallow what we're told

A future of limits and in capabilities
Left to believe all there has been is everything
Separate are dreams to distinguish reality
Never pass up on a chance we

Hold on
Hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on
You hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on

Shake your fear, defend your soul
Regret is a measurement defined by ego
Still here, but soon we go
Our story left untold
Guilt and fear, paid in full
Drown out the sound or continue the cycle
We wait but will we go
And swallow what we're told

A future of limits and in capabilities
Left to believe all there has been is everything
Separate are dreams to distinguish reality
Never pass up on a chance we

Hold on
Hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on
You hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on

In a world where everything you've seen
Has no room for doubt, no questioning
Separate the pain from identity

Hold on
Hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on

You Hold on
You're on the edge and falling off
Don't think about all that you've lost
Think of why you hold on
