

I'm not defined by the way you live your life
Not confirmed by choices you made for me
It doesn't matter why
It won't justify my life
You're not my fault
You're my disease

It's not a question of flaws and imperfections
This bullshit you stepped in is over so end it
I'm not affected by standards you live with
Your judgement is based upon tailored exceptions
Your ammunition is flawed and defenseless
It ends with a question but answer existence
I'm done with defenseless
Demons are restless
Relentless to ever
Give in to Resistance!

WHY?
do you hold back the anger?
WHY?
do you hide the insane?
WHY?
won't you channel the rage
And use what your God gave you!

WHY?
do you hold back the anger?
WHY?
do you hide the insane?
WHY?
won't you channel the rage
And use what your God gave you!

You won't be satisfied until you save my life
Questions followed by reasons you'll pray for me
And how you'll sacrifice when it's you who's lost inside
I'm not your fault
I'm your disease

It's not a question of flaws and imperfections
This bullshit you stepped in is over so end it
I'm not affected by standards you live with

WHY?

won't you channel the rage

And use what your God gave you!

WHY?

do you hold back the anger?

WHY?

do you hide the insane?

WHY?

won't you channel the rage

And use what your God gave you!

...What your god gave you...

WHY?

do you hold back the anger?

won't you channel the rage

And use what your God gave you!
