

Is it just a cope to have hope?
These days I feel the creep of a fatalistic streak
Struck dumb as the screen goes dim
Like a shark swimming without fins
At the whims of an ocean black with oil
Watch it roil bubble and boil cracked
We toil in sunless slime
I wonder if we'll make it alive
Sing me a chorus blow a little sunshine

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream
Blink your black eyes
Open with me

Take the mezzanine down
Keep your sunglasses on when you're checking out
Of the grand Hellworld hotel
Put on a smile and ring the bell

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream
Blink your black eyes
Open with me

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream
Blink your black eyes
Open with me

Came to break that cloud
Came to break that big cloud down
Came to break that cloud
Came to break that big cloud down
Came to break that cloud
Came to break that big cloud down
Came to break that cloud
Came to break that big cloud down

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream

Blink your black eyes
Open with me

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream
Blink your black eyes
Open with me

On the bright side
There's a dark side
On the dark side
There's a sun beam
A lonely sun beam
Warms the blood stream
Blink your black eyes
Open with me
