

Happy

Everclear

David's got some issues now he says he never is good enough there is nothing that he wants to do nothing he does is ever good enough he hears is from the girls that he likes that nothing is good enough he hears it loud when he tries to sleep at night

that nothing is good enough

Nothing makes you happy nothing makes you live in a world without love Nothing is the only thing that will never change so nothing is good enough
