

Pretty Bomb

Everclear

My pretty bomb, you are beauty in an ugly world
The stupid people want to steal your style
Pretty bomb, you are magic on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why

My pretty bomb, exploding in an easy world
The stupid people want to kill your smile
Pretty bomb, you are magic on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why

I would rather stab myself in the eye
Than watch you stumble on the high wire
You don't even know how punk you are
You go left when the world goes right

My pretty bomb, you are heavy in an easy world
The stupid people want to kill your smile
Pretty bomb, you are magic on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why

Why people like us
We get our ass kicked everyday
The only way that we can win
Is to get back up and walk away

They will beat you up
They will beat you down
Never let them see you cry
Never let them see pain
This will all make sense some day

My pretty bomb, exploding in an easy world
The stupid people want to kill your smile
Pretty bomb, you are better on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why

While you wake up in a hurricane
Dirty hands and a pretty face
Leather boots and princess lace
I promise it will all make sense some day

This will all make sense some day

My pretty bomb, you are beauty in an ugly world
The stupid people want to steal your style
Pretty bomb, you are magic on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why
My pretty bomb, exploding in an easy world
The stupid people want to kill your smile
Pretty bomb, you are better on the inside
The stupid people, they will never know why

This will all make sense some day
This will all make sense some day
This will all make sense some day
