

Heavy Number One (Aka: Shizzle My Nizzle)

Evergreen Terrace

Dying in this dead world
Bleeding, pass down the days gone

Surrender is your last acceptance
This fall just broke my hands
Forget wiping the slate
Let's just destroy the past

Still alive with the knife
As this blade digs your grave

My back bleeds

The curse is set, the stone is cast
The curse is set, the stone is cast

My back bleeds

From friends, to idols, to ashes
From friends, to idols, to ashes
Friends... idols... ashes...
Friends... idols... ashes...
