

Blindfolded

Evergrey

I need something to believe in
And need something more to start seeing
That this life that I'm weaving
Start to feel less deceiving
I need to recall

It is a miracle to free yourself from chains
'Cause failure's imminent and life can't change to
Something more beautiful, even acceptable
We need to open up our eyes and leave the
Dark nights coming
We are lost in fragile moments
Falsehood, soulless
We run through this blindfolded

I need something to start feeling again
And something more to start believing in me
And this time that I'm weaving
I'll make sure all ends are meeting
I'll need it

It is a miracle to free yourself from chains
'Cause failure's imminent and life can't change to
Something more beautiful, even acceptable
We need to open up our eyes and leave the
Dark nights coming
We are lost in fragile moments
Falsehood, soulless
We run through this blindfolded

It is a miracle to free yourself from chains
'Cause failure's imminent and life can't change to
Something more beautiful, even acceptable
We need to open up our eyes and leave the
Dark nights coming
We are lost in fragile moments
Falsehood, soulless
We run through this blindfolded
Hey, blindfolded
We run through this blindfolded
Hey, blindfolded
We run through this blindfolded