

Hymns For The Broken

Evergrey

I need to disappear
Devoured and forgotten
Gotta hurry, these lands
Before it is too dark to see
I have to disappear

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken

Hey, you know me, my every turn
Hey, you see me, in front of you I'll never hurt
Hey, hear me, it is time I left
Hey, I know you're watching me
Sending fire to the sea winds of Earth

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken

I need to disappear
Devoured and forgotten
Gotta hurry, these lands
Before it is too dark to see
I have to disappear

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken

Reach out, show me how you feel the same
Scream loud these hymns are for the broken
