

Numb

Evergrey

Give me a reason why I'd follow you
One single hour where I become you Unjust prophecies
Uncalled for enemies
And all those nights of anguished sleep
Where you wish that someone heard
You've become numb to the world
But you're not alone

So have you ever felt like I feel Wounded and never got a chance to heal
And have you ever been through what I've been through Still breathing...

So please hear my words as I'm begging you to heal my wounds, heal my wounds I'm bleeding through I never saw it in the eyes of you and what I felt was always true

Unjust prophecies
Uncalled for enemies
And all those nights of anguished sleep
Where I wish that someone heard I've become numb to the world and I've become you

Have you ever felt like I feel Wounded and never
And have you ever
been through what I've been through Still breathing, still breathing

Unjust prophecies
Uncalled for enemies
And all those nights of anguished sleep
Where you wish that someone heard
You've become numb to the world
But you're not alone
No you're not alone
So have you ever stood where I stand My only wish is you'd understand And have you ever gone through what I've gone through Still breathing, still breathing
