

Dream State

Everlast

Walk it, talk it, show it, prove it
Slow improvement, check the movement
Play the section, obey the sanctions
Search protection, close the ranks in
Find the tempo lively up your body
Move with the rhythm and fuck somebody
Hearts get raising, souls get broken
Like gunshot wounds leave holes wide open
Someday moping, someday hope
Pray they find love before the end of their road
Some turn to the dope, get high as a rain
Some only cope, then they disguising their pain
Some turn to their neighbor, some turn to their god
And some spoil the child while sparing the rod
And some point above while they pray for their schemes
And some say that love's only real in your dreams, like

All I have's a dream
It never was meant to come true
All I have's a dream
Loving you

All I have's a dream
It never was meant to come true
All I have's a dream
Loving you

Drop the hammer, Omega, Gamma
Last one ever, all ties get severed
Lies get spoken, hearts get jaded
Memories blur once true love faded
Long past prisons of class divisions
Paper incisions in rash decisions
Hash based visions of assassin's hands
Cash based devils in the back with grins
Track the winds, energy's kinetic
Crack that lens, photosynthetic
So sympathetic, broken heart chalice
Hurting like Kelis, fueled by malice
Fed by anger, ruled by violence
Schooled in suffering, hidden through silence
Love is so sacred, love's so pure
And love's the disease that you will not cure, cause

All I have's a dream
It never was meant to come true
All I have's a dream
Loving you

All I have's a dream
It never was meant to come true
All I have's a dream
Loving you

All I have's a dream
It never was meant to come true
All I have's a dream

Loving you
