

One of Us

Everlast

A diamond in a rough
A walk out in a rain
It's never been enough
Addicted to the pain
Why so serious?
Searching for blame
Less than obvious
A broken picture frame

It's a God damn mess, to cry in shame
All but one of us lose the game
It's the natural things that stay the same
All but one of us lose the game
All but one of us

Like a spider's web
Waiting for a fly
Something soft and sweet
Catch my looming eye
Drink from sunken tea
Drunk and oh, so high
Joy turns into grieve
Plans they go arrive

It's a God damn mess, to cry in shame
All but one of us lose the game
It's the natural things that stay the same
All but one of us lose the game
All but one of us

Beneath the joy and pain
Amongst the fear and pride
A minor victories
Thoughts of suicide
Faith in God and [?]
The universe provides
Gripped us with the scales
Take you for a ride

It's a God damn mess, to cry in shame
All but one of us lose the game
It's the natural things that stay the same
All but one of us lose the game
All but one of us
All but one of us lose the game
All but one of us
All but one of us lose the game
