Home for the weekend, lookin' for a good time Of all the numbers, you end up callin' mine Ready or not, I think I?ll give this a shot I should know better than to give her what she wants

I picked her up and she was three-fourths gone She passed out before we even got to talk All I want to know is

Where were you when I needed you most? Why did you leave me alone? We gave up before we gave it a chance And I don?t understand

Back to where we left off, baby ?How you been? and ?What?s been new with you lately? Just forget it, it?s the same old runaround You build me up just to let me down, down

Where were you when I needed you most? Why did you leave me alone? We gave up before we gave it a chance And I don?t understand

Where were you when I needed you most? Why did you leave me alone? We gave up before we gave it a chance And I don?t understand

Just forget it, it?s the same old runaround Just forget it, just forget it Just forget it, it?s the same old runaround Just forget it, just forget it

Where were you when I needed you most?
Why did you leave me alone?
We gave up before we gave it a chance
And I don?t understand, I don?t understand

Where were you when I needed you most? Why did you leave me alone? We gave up before we gave it a chance And I don?t understand

Where were you when I needed you most? Why did you leave me alone? We gave up before we gave it a chance And I don?t understand

Home for the weekend, lookin' for a good time
